Greetings from the Fulbright Commission in the Philippines!

The Philippine-American Educational Foundation (PAEF) also referred to as the Fulbright Commission in the Philippines, is a binational commission responsible for the administration of the prestigious Fulbright Scholarship Program, Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program, Global Undergraduate Exchange Program, and other educational exchange initiatives between the United States and the Philippines.

We are pleased to inform you that the Fulbright Commission in the Philippines and the Notre Dame Law School at the University of Notre Dame are offering a scholarship opportunity for Filipino lawyers to pursue an LL.M. in International Human Rights Law in the United States. You may refer to the enclosed recruitment flyer to learn more about the application, eligibility, and requirements of the scholarship grant. We would like to request your assistance in disseminating this information to your institutional network, colleagues, and friends and encourage them to explore and apply for this opportunity.

To learn more about the Fulbright-University of Notre Dame LL.M. in International Human Rights Student Award, please contact our team at fulbright@fulbright.org.ph and direct your questions to Ms. Milagros Tan, Program Officer.

Thank you for your support to the Fulbright programs.

Sincerely yours,

Julio S. Amador III

ABOUT THE FULBRIGHT PROGRAM

Established in 1946 by Senator J. William Fulbright, the program is the United States government's flagship international educational and cultural exchange program offering opportunities for students and young professionals to undertake international graduate study, advanced research, and university teaching worldwide. The Fulbright Program has been operating in over 160 countries worldwide with 50 bi-national commissions.

"Build mutual understanding, advance knowledge across communities, and improve lives around the world."

FULBRIGHT PHILIPPINES

The Philippine-American Educational Foundation (PAEF) was established in 1948 through a bi-national agreement between the United States and the Philippine governments.

PAEF is the oldest continuing bi-national commission in the world, and international education scholarships in the Philippines. Over 7 decades, PAEF has funded over 3,000 Filipinos and 1,000 U.S. scholars.
